Ten Ways to Help Prevent Child Abuse

- Be a nurturing parent.
  Children need to know that they are special, loved and capable of following their dreams.

- Help a friend, neighbor or relative.
  Being a parent isn’t easy. Offer a helping hand take care of the children, so the parent(s) can rest or spend time together.

- Help yourself.
  When the big and little problems of your everyday life pile up to the point you feel overwhelmed and out of control – take time out. Don’t take it out on your kid.

- If your baby cries…
  It can be frustrating to hear your baby cry. Learn what to do if your baby won’t stop crying. Never shake a baby – shaking a child may result in severe injury or death.

- Get involved.
  Ask your community leaders, clergy, library and schools to develop services to meet the needs of healthy children and families.

- Help to develop parenting resources at your local library.
  Find out whether your local library has parenting resources, and if it does not, offer to help obtain some.

- Promote programs in school.
  Teaching children, parents and teachers prevention strategies can help to keep children safe.

- Monitor your child’s television, video, and internet viewing/usage.
  Watching violent films, TV programs, and videos can harm young children.

- Volunteer at a local child abuse prevention program.
  For information about volunteer opportunities, call 1.800.CHILDREN.

- Report suspected abuse or neglect.
  If you have reason to believe a child has been or may be harmed, call your local department of children and family services or your local police department.
